

Director Appointment!

Redditch based supply chain specialists, Oakland International Limited, has announced the appointment of General Manager Paul Ziolek, to its board of directors to take on the role of Operations Director.

Bringing a wealth of experience, Paul has spent a quarter of a century within the transport, logistics and supply chain sector. Oakland's Managing Director Dean Attwell commenting on the promotion said: "Paul's appointment is directly in line with our strategy, setting ourselves up to achieve significant growth in both ambient and chilled consolidation supply chain. Oakland is growing at a rate of 70% year on year and the appointment of Paul to the board is a significant strengthening to the business."

Since joining the company in 2005, Paul has aided company development and supported the business, extending services and contributing heavily to the growth of the Oakland brand. His appointment to Oakland's board demonstrates the company's determination to power forward, whilst opening up employee opportunities for personal development and progression within a broad based and diverse service operation.

Paul, commenting on his promotion said: "It is a privilege to be offered the opportunity to join the board of Directors of Oakland International. I am looking forward to the continued challenge of insuring Oakland achieves its strategic objectives."

Presently there are no plans to fill Paul's vacant position, however emphasis will be placed on developing further the Operations Manager's role, held by colleague Chris Harris, to incorporate additional operational tasks and functions at present performed by Paul.

Said Dean: "The Oakland team joins Paul in celebrating his directorship, which will provide a strategic element for the company's plan of future growth, helping to maintain Oakland as one of the foremost players in the supply chain sector."

